DEVELOPMENTAL ASSETS IN PALO ALTO

AN OVERVIEW OF PALO ALTO UNIFIED SCHOOL DISTRICT’S 2017 DEVELOPMENTAL ASSETS SURVEY RESULTS

PRESENTATION FOR PROJECT SAFETY NET COMMUNITY FORUM
OCTOBER 25, 2017
AGENDA FOR TODAY

• Background and Explanation of Surveys

• Highlights of Data

• Planting a Seed/Things for You to Consider as You Move Forward:
  • What are next steps and/or questions that will help us build more Assets?
  • What is the call to action? What are the youth telling us?
  • How do we engage everyone to effectively work together?

• Questions & Answers
ABOUT THE SANTA CLARA COUNTY DEVELOPMENTAL ASSETS SURVEY

2 surveys for different age groups:

• Me and My World (MMW) for elementary grades

• Attitudes and Behaviors (A&B) for middle/high school grades
ABOUT THE SANTA CLARA COUNTY DEVELOPMENTAL ASSETS SURVEY

When: Most recent batch of surveys were completed on-line in September or October 2016.

What:
The Search Institute surveys measure:

• Students’ attitudes, behaviors, and Developmental Assets (the positive values, relationships, and experiences that help young people succeed)

• Risk-taking behaviors and thriving indicators – showing how the presence or absence of Developmental Assets affects whether young people make healthy choices
ABOUT THE SANTA CLARA COUNTY DEVELOPMENTAL ASSETS SURVEY

Who: More than 43,000 students total
- 25 school districts throughout Santa Clara County
- More than 180 schools
- 12,947 ES students
- 12,911 MS Students
- 17,794 HS Students
- Schools chose any grades from 4-6 for elementary and 6-12 for middle/high school surveys.
- Project Cornerstone’s targeted grades:
  - 4th, 5th, 7th, 9th, 11th

A FEW WORDS ABOUT DATA...

Grain of salt

Confusing?  Dig deeper – How many questions for that asset? Subject to interpretation?

Think of kids, not just numbers...

Patterns?

Prompts more questions?

Next steps? Action plan?

A snapshot of our youth at a particular point in time...

Inspiring?

DEVELOPMENTAL ASSETS - DEFINITION

• Developmental Assets are the positive values, relationships, and experiences that ALL youth need to thrive.

• Search Institute has identified 40 assets in eight categories.

• Project Cornerstone has 41 assets.
8 ASSET CATEGORIES

External
- Support
- Empowerment
- Boundaries/Expectations
- Constructive Use of Time

Internal
- Commitment to Learning
- Positive Values
- Social Competencies
- Positive Identity
SUCCESS/THRIVING

Research shows that the more assets all kids have, the more likely all kids are to succeed.

The best predictor of success?
  • Strong Families

The second best predictor of success?
  • School Connectedness
WHAT DOES THE RESEARCH SAY?

Youth do better when they have relationships and experiences that make them feel valued, respected, and known.

• Youth with lower asset levels are more likely to engage in risk behaviors and be less successful at school. (Risk-Taking Behaviors)

• Youth with higher asset levels are more likely to choose healthy activities, succeed in school, and avoid risk behaviors. (Thriving Indicators)
THE MORE ASSETS, THE BETTER

Search Institute created 4 levels for the average number of assets and linked them to risky and thriving behaviors.

- Thriving/Optimal: 31-40 assets
- Adequate: 21-30 assets
- Vulnerable: 11-20 assets
- At Risk: 0-10 assets

AS YOU MOVE FORWARD...

WHAT ARE NEXT STEPS?

• What are the youth’s stories? What are they telling us?

• What questions do the results bring up?

• How can we use this information to inform our work as a community?
  - Who should be at the table?
  - What are we doing well?
  - What can be improved?
  - Where does youth fit into this discussion?
What is one thing you can do personally today?
COMMUNITY BUILDING OPPORTUNITIES
EVERY SMALL, POSITIVE STEP IS A STEP FORWARD...

• Project Cornerstone’s “Take It Personally” workshops: A 6-week series to help communities learn new tools for strengthening our relationships with children and youth. Using Developmental Assets as the framework, each week we share, discuss, and practice ways to show caring, give support, set boundaries, and build strong relationships that help youth succeed in school, friendships, and life! When we strengthen family and community connections, we are more equipped to help all young people thrive. (Current and upcoming workshops can be found on our web site.)

• Engage in Service to Others (Asset #9) – often called the “Gateway” Asset. Providing youth and families opportunities to give to others in meaningful ways can open the gate to 20 other assets.
We build caring adults
Who build caring schools
Which build caring communities
That build strong kids!
A THANK YOU FROM PROJECT CORNERSTONE...

• for your support!
• for your partnership and collaboration in helping all youth!
